Revocation Readiness:	Readiness Confirmed
Submission Date:	25 June 2020
Summary:	On 25 June 2020, ICANN org issued its notice of intent to terminate the .aigo Registry Agreement to Aigo Digital Technology Co, Ltd. (herein referred to as "Aigo"), the Registry Operator for the .aigo gTLD. Aigo was issued a Notice of Breach by ICANN Contractual Compliance on 30 March 2018, and ICANN org initiated termination proceedings through mediation and arbitration. ICANN org prevailed in the arbitration proceeding and Aigo failed to cure its material breaches of the RA, including breach for non-payment of fees, by the 1 June 2020 deadline set forth in the arbitration award. On 25 June 2020, based on provisions set forth in section 4.5 of the .aigo Registry Agreement, ICANN org made its Determination to not transition the .aigo gTLD to a successor registry operator and to terminate the .aigo Registry Agreement. As such, the .aigo gTLD is ready for revocation from the root zone.

Checklist for gTLD Revocation Readiness

If any answers are "no," a description of the impact on readiness for revocation (if any) must be provided. The impact should include why ICANN has determined to proceed with the revocation.

Notice of Termination
1: Did ICANN org provide all properly given, required notices to the Registry Operator pursuant to the terms of the Registry Agreement and/or the Registry Transition Process?	Yes
2: Did an arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction determine that the Registry Operator is in fundamental and material breach of such covenant(s) or in breach of its payment obligations?	Yes
3: Did the Registry Operator fail to comply with the determination of the arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction and cure such breach within ten (10) calendar days or the period of time as determined by the arbitrator or court of competent jurisdiction?	Yes

Determination on need to transition operation of the gTLD
1: Did ICANN complete an assessment to determine whether or not to transition operation of the TLD to a successor registry operator?	Yes
2: Did ICANN publish its determination? URL for determination: https://www.icann.org/sites/default/files/tlds/aigo/aigo-legal-notice-determination-25jun20-en.pdf	Yes
3: Was it determined that operations of the gTLD do not need to be transitioned to a successor Registry Operator? URL for determination: https://www.icann.org/sites/default/files/tlds/aigo/aigo-legal-notice-determination-25jun20-en.pdf	Yes
4: Has ICANN assessed that revocation of the gTLD's delegation in the DNS root zone will not create security, stability, and/or resiliency issues?	Yes
5: Was approval for the determination appropriately authorized? URL of the reference authorization: https://www.icann.org/sites/default/files/tlds/aigo/aigo-legal-notice-determination-25jun20-en.pdf	Yes
